

FILM INSURANCE.

BHS is a large Midwest insurance agency specializing in film and television production. They are a Film Friendly Michigan business; by purchasing insurance through them, producers qualify for the 40% rebate through the Michigan filming incentives program.

Rob Visser, CLCS leads the Film Team which offers comprehensive insurance programs, Production Insurance, Liability, Hired & Non-Owned Auto & Errors & Omissions. BHS can also assist you with the Necessary Completion Bonds. BHS has access to all four major film insurance carriers: Fireman's Fund, Travelers, Chubb & EBI. In addition, they offer local claims & safety management.

Film and television production insurance that includes:

- Use of pyrotechnics, stunts, hazardous activities, the story underlying right there of: the screen play, rewrites, sound or music rights-recording costs, indirect overhead and royalties.
- Medical coverage including and up to pre-production cast protection, physical photography cast protection and post-production cast protection.
- Equipment, such as negative film or videotape, faulty stock, cameras description of and processing equipment, props, sets wardrobes
- Liability damage to property with extra expense and personal property of the film.
- Non-owned and hired automobile.
- Money and securities.
- Commercial general liability.